STAFF ORIENTATION PROGRAMME OVERVIEW (20th SEPTEMBER 2024)

Today, a staff orientation programme was held in the conference hall at Gnanam block, featuring Dr. Sr. Paul Tresa as the resource person. The theme of the session was "Education to Protect Tomorrow," emphasizing the importance of education in safeguarding the future.

Key Highlights

Dr. Tresa's presentation likely focused on how educational practices can be aligned with sustainable development goals and the role of educators in fostering a protective and nurturing environment for students. This theme resonates with current global challenges, highlighting the need for proactive educational strategies that prepare students to face future uncertainties. The orientation aimed to equip staff with insights and strategies that can be implemented in their teaching methodologies, ensuring that they contribute positively to the development of responsible and informed future citizens.
