The welcoming of reunion of the previous batches to continue the endearing relationship with it's Alma – mater is the objective of Alumni Association.

As one of the best practices, our college has been organizing the alumni gatherings to serve a twofold purpose.

1. It ensures that Alumni are updated about the developments taking place in their Alma matter. Thus it facilitates them to be connected with the institution.
- 2 . It makes sure that the current batch students get to interact with the old student by Sharing their experiences through any medium possible. This enables them to reach out for relationship and friendship.

Thus alumni Association has been instrumental in maintaining relationship and fostering ties.

By the grace of Almighty God, during this academic year 2022-2023 committee started its work from the month of June onwards. As per the valuable suggestions & the remarkable instructions of the Principal Sister Rev.Dr.Sr.Fatima Rani.P, College management & Committee planned to conduct an Alumni meet in the month of July.

Regarding this, first of all committee had collected the phone no's & addresses of the former students . Up to date, they were contacted by phone 'or' by message and got their confirmation.

In this connection, finally the Alumni meet was conducted on 1st July 2023, in the seminar hall of the college. It was started on this day at 10.00 a. m with some introductory words given by Mrs. P. Sandhya, HOD Dept. of English and programme was started with the word of God by Miss A. Amulya IMSCs. Then a melodious prayer song was sung by the student sisters. UG students showed their best performances in the form of welcome Dance to greet the Alumni.

Principal & Correspondent of the college, Rev.Dr. Sr.Fathima Rani .P, assisted with senior faculty of the college inaugurated the programme with lighting of the lamp to flourish the light of St. Ann's Alumni. After that, sister addressed the Alumni gathering, to recall their previous days in the college campus blessed them to reach higher peaks in their life, & guided them, how to face many challenges raised in the present society.

Another remarkable point was 36 students were presented & registered their names to this meet, coming from different batches. Each one of the Alumni introduced themselves, shared their experiences & cherished their memories enthusiastically. An active interactive session was conducted among the former students.

Alumni Association was registered on 9th September 2022 initiated by Rev.Dr.Sr.Fatima Rani.P the Principal of the College. And following are the Office bearers of Alumni Association.
