SAVE GIRL CHILD AWARENESS PROGRAMME BY 10(A) GIRLS BATTALION NCC,GUNTUR.

Name of the Activity :Save Girls Child Awareness Programme

Date :20-04-2023

Organizer :Lt.K.Susmitha

No of Participants:30

Objectives:

The main aim of the scheme is to prevent female feticide and sex determination, ensure safety and save all female children, and to provide them with quality education.

Outcomes:

This program has stirred up collective consciousness towards changing the mindset of the public to acknowledge the rights of the girl child. The scheme has resulted in increased awareness and sensitization of the masses.

Description:

Without recognizing the feminine aspect of divinity, one cannot claim to know GOD. To recognize the feminine it is necessary to restore wholeness, completeness and universality. "SAVE THE GIRL CHILD". Without recognizing the feminine aspect of divinity, one cannot claim to know GOD. Girls are equally as important as boys in the society to maintain the social equilibrium. Few years ago, there was huge reduction in the number of women in comparison to the man. It was so because of the increasing crimes against women such as female feticide, dowry deaths, rape, poverty, illiteracy, gender discrimination and many more. To equalize the number of women in the society, it is very necessary to aware people greatly about the save girl child. Government of India has taken some positive steps regarding save girl child such as protection of women from domestic violence act 2005, ban of female infanticide, immoral traffic (prevention) act, proper education, gender equality, etc.

TREE PLANTATION BY 10(A) GIRLS BATTALION NCC,GUNTUR.

Name of the Activity :Tree Plantation

Date :29-10-2022

Organizer :Lt.K.Susmitha

No of Participants:30

Objectives:

1.To promote the continuous planting of trees and the expansion of woodland across vulnerable communities to tackle the adverse effect of climate change as a result of continuous indiscriminate deforestation.

Outcomes:

1.Tree Plantation drives combat many environmental issues like deforestation, erosion of soil, desertification in semi-arid areas, global warming and hence enhancing the beauty and balance of the environment. Trees absorb harmful gases and emit oxygen resulting in an increase in oxygen supply.

Description:

Tree plantation is a process where a large number of trees or seedlings are planted for land reclamation or landscaping. Planting large numbers of trees helps to purify the polluted air that we breathe in. Plants play a big role in our ecosystem by maintaining a balance among all the elements that are present in nature. Planting more trees also helps to keep in check the climate conditions of a place.

On 29 Oct 2022, all the cadets of NCC of St. Ann's College For Women has participated by tree plantation programme in Happy Oldage Home at Reddipalem,Guntur. Our cadets have planted a few a saplings in the surroundings of Oldage home.

After the planting we have conducted an awareness program to the people in the surroundings regarding tree plantation by telling them to plant more plants to save the nature.

2. We have collected funds from the public to donate them to the orphans and poor.

Description:

Communal harmony is defined as the peace and goodwill among people of different religions, ethnicities, or other groups. It is characterised by respect for the beliefs and practices of others, and a willingness to live in harmony with those who are different. In today's world, there is an increasing need for communal harmony. With the growth of globalisation and the rise of religious extremism, it is more important than ever for people of different backgrounds to come together and respect one another. Every country needs communal harmony. A country can only develop if there is peace and harmony there. India has made laws for upholding inter-communal harmony despite the presence of individuals from many castes and religions.

It's recognized for its secular values. The government has no recognized religion. It is important to promote communal harmony in order to maintain a peaceful and cohesive society. There are many ways in which this can be done, such as: Encouraging people of different backgrounds to mix and interact with one another. Promoting understanding and respect for all cultures and religions. Teaching children the importance of tolerance and respect from a young age. Organizing community events which bring people together from all walks of life. Challenging prejudices and celebrating diversity. By taking steps to promote communal harmony, we can create a more harmonious society where everyone can live peacefully side by side.

To promote Communal harmony we have conducted rally on behalf of NCC. As the rally was commenced by our Principal Rev. Dr. Sr. Fatima Rani. P the cadets of St. Ann's College has joined the rally and also collected the funds from the public for the welfare of orphanages and old age homes.

2. They have pledged to strive to maintain the unity and integrity of the country.

Description:

The most well-known and effective mass movement in the series of agitations organised by Gandhi during the war for freedom was the movement to leave India, also known as the Revolt of 1942 or the "August Revolution" of 1942. The Second World War had already begun when this massive migration was organized, and the sky was already dark and overcast due to the Japanese invasion of India.

The Cripps Mission's efforts were in vain, and prices for necessities were skyrocketing. However, the day of liberation from British imperialism does not seem far off. Gandhi frequently encouraged the British to "Leave India to God or to anarchy" and said, "This orderly disciplined anarchy should go, and if as a result there is complete lawlessness, I would risk it." According to Sumit Sarkar, "The summer of 1942 found Gandhi in a strange and uniquely militant mood. "The man who 'promised' Swaraj within a year is restless and keen to see that his aim of securing freedom for India is quickly realized, as seen by his words made in May 1942. Though the need for non-violence was constantly emphasized, Gandhi's motto of "Do or Die" best captures his combative demeanor, as Sumit Sarkar notes.

In the remembrance of the sacrifice made by our freedom and on the occasion of Rashtriya Ekta Divas, our Guntur Group has conducted rally for all the battalions of Guntur including 10(A) Girls Battalion, 25(A) Battalion, 22(A) Battalion, 23(A) Battalion, 2 Armed SQN and 1 Engineer Coy Battalion. The rally was started at Collector Office and ended at Municipal Office. Finally, the rally was dispersed after distributing snacks to the cadets.

VISITING OLD AGE HOMES BY 10(A) GIRLS BATTALION NCC,GUNTUR.

Objectives:

AIMS OF VISIT:

- To explore out the physical set up of the institute.
- To find out the organizational structure of institute.
- To know the how service and facilities provided to them.
- To make them feel special.
- To make them happy and bring smile on their face

Outcomes:

1. By visiting old age home we gained knowledge about the feelings of the elders and about the facilities provided to them & how the old age home is maintained.

Description:

We reached there along with all the NCC cadets on 13 December 2022 at 10:00 am. Firstly, we gathered in the meeting hall where the head of the institution gave introduction about the institution organization and facilities rendered by them. Later on, she gave us the orientation of institution and introduced us to their members. There were 65 elderly women and men in old age home.

The cadets of the college interacted the elderly followed by distributing fruits to them. The inmates were very happy and blessed everyone. It was a joyous occasion with full of satisfaction that the team could bring some rays of happiness among the elderly. It was a pleasure witnessing of such wonderful work i.e. unconditional services.

POLLUTION RALLY BY 10(A) GIRLS BATTALION NCC,GUNTUR.

Name of the Activity : Pollution Rally

Date : 02-11-2021

Organizer :Lt.K.Susmitha

No of Participants:08

Description:

Pollution is the introduction of harmful materials into the environment. These harmful materials are called pollutants. Pollutants can be natural, such as volcanic ash. They can also be created by human activity, such as trash or runoff produced by factories. Pollutants damage the quality of air, water, and land.

Over 08 NCC cadets of St. Ann's College For Women, Gorantla took it upon them to spread awareness about the ill-effects of pollution on environment, around the neighbouring communities of Gorantla on 2nd Nov 2021.

The rally flagged off from the College campus by our Principal Rev.Dr.Sr.FatimaRani.P, from where the enthusiastic cadets walked around the community announcing slogans, holding placards and handing out informative pamphlets to the residents. The entire activity was well received and it was heartening to see the residents observe and take note of the sensitive message being voiced by the young cadets of St. Ann's College.
